Accounts with invoices unpaid ninety (90) days or more will be assessed an interest charge of 1 1/2 % per month, as allowed by applicable law. If the account goes to collection, End-User agrees to pay all collection expenses, including attorneys' fees and court costs. End-User agrees that providing credit card information and submitting it electronically to Tenant Patrol represents a legal authorization to debit the card for the orders placed or for non-payment per the 15 day terms. End-User agrees that prices for services are subject to change without notice, although Tenant Patrol will make every reasonable effort to give notice of such change before it becomes effective. Any account that remains inactive for a period of twelve (12) months will be deemed inactive and may be terminated by Tenant Patrol.

Tenant Patrol makes no representation or warranty whatsoever, express or implied, including but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for particular purpose, or implied warranties arising from the course of dealing or a course of performance with respect to the accuracy, validity, or completeness of any information products and/or consumer reports, that the information products will meet End-User's needs, or will be provided on an uninterrupted basis; Tenant Patrol expressly disclaims any and all such representations and warranties.

Tenant Patrol will not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or special damages for loss of profits, whether incurred as a result of negligence or otherwise, even if Tenant Patrol has been advised of the possibility of such damages. End-User shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Tenant Patrol from and against any and all claims, suits, proceedings, damages, costs, expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs) brought or suffered by any third party arising or resulting from, or otherwise in connection with, any breach by End-User of any of its representations, warranties, or agreements in this Agreement or its negligence or willful misconduct.

Tenant Patrol nevertheless agrees to be responsible for actual damages to the extent of and maximum stated herein for third party claims directly resulting from Tenant Patrol's sole negligence in assembling the consumer report. Tenant Patrol does not guarantee End-User's compliance with all applicable laws in its use of reported information, and makes no effort to provide compliance related services in connection with its furnishing of reports. End-User understands that any conversation or communication with Tenant Patrol's representatives regarding searches, verifications or other services offered by Tenant Patrol are not to be considered a legal opinion regarding such use. End-User agrees that it will consult with its own legal or other counsel regarding the legality of using or relying on reported information.

Term and Termination

The term of this Agreement shall begin on the date it is executed by End-User and shall be in effect for one (1) year (term) beginning on the first day of the assigned date below and renewed automatically for one (1) year each year on its anniversary date, if no written notice is received by either party within thirty (30) days prior to end of term.

Tenant Patrol reserves the right to change its fees under this Agreement upon ten (10) days notice to End-User; provided, Tenant Patrol will not increase its own fees during the first six (6) months of this Agreement.

Tenant Patrol may terminate or revise the provisions of this Agreement immediately upon written notice if End-User is the debtor in a bankruptcy action or in an assignment for the benefit of creditors or if End-User undergoes a change in ownership. Termination of this Agreement by either party does not release End-User from its obligation to pay for services rendered.

In addition to any and all other rights a party may have available according to law, if a party defaults by failing to perform any provision, term or condition of this Agreement the other party may terminate the Agreement by providing written notice to the defaulting party. This notice shall describe with sufficient detail the nature of the default. The party receiving such notice shall have fifteen (15) days from the receipt of such notice to cure the default(s). Unless waived by a party providing notice, the failure to cure the default(s) within such time period shall result in the automatic termination of this Agreement.

Force Majeure

End-User agrees that Tenant Patrol is not responsible for any events or circumstances beyond its control (e.g., including but not limited to war, riots, embargoes, strikes and/or Acts of God) that prevent Tenant Patrol from meeting its obligations under this Agreement.

8. End-User agrees to shred and/or destroy all hard copy consumer reports when they are no longer needed and erase and overwrite or scramble electronic files containing consumer information when no longer needed and when applicable regulation(s) permit destruction.
9. End-User agrees to notify its employees that End-User can access credit information only for the permissible purposes listed in the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
